

1906 South Ocean

Palm Beach, Florida, United States

When we received the first drawings of this project in Palm Beach, Florida, the enthusiasm was general. As usual, there were some mock-ups to prepare, such as the thick half-cane facade, but it is a pleasure to now present this grand and modern private residence. The natural beauty of the Portuguese limestone Cream de Mós at the service of architecture, and art!

